

Ravinder Purewal

Parent Governor

As a parent of one child at Glebe School, I have seen first-hand the great education and nurturing environment provided by all the dedicated teachers and staff. As a governor this gives me the opportunity to contribute to the ongoing success and development of the school and enables me to use experiences in my own professional career to champion continuous improvement to the standards of education academically, socially and emotionally.