

John Buckingham

Chairman and Local Authority Governor

I have been a Governor at Glebe School since 1987 during which time my four children and now my Grandson all have completed their Primary education here. My primary aim in becoming a Governor was to assist, in some way, Glebe School to maintain its reputation as an excellent centre for education.