

Co-Opted Governor

Kevin Fox

In addition to my role on the main Governing body I work on the Finance Committee and as Literacy Lead Governor.

I was fortunate to have a successful start to my education at a great primary school and from there onto studying medicine at Cambridge University. I want to help other children share my opportunities and serving on my local school's Governing Board provides an opportunity to fulfil that ambition.