

Sentence Openers	Conjunctions	Words The Children Must Know the Meaning Of	Definition	Example.
(É)	because or	Word		Cat.
5	so that	Sentence	A group of words which puts together 1 idea.	The cat sat on the mat.
	then when	Letter		С
	where	Capital letter	Upper case letters.	CTL
Because, To his amazement, If		Full stop .	Punctuation which goes at the end of statement	The school finishes at 3pm.
Time Connectives/ Conjunctions		Punctuation	Symbols which indicates something in a sentence or at the end .	.?!,""
(time adverbs): One day,		Singular,	One thing.	cat
The next morning, In the end,		Plural	More than one thing.	cats
Now, Soon,		Adjective	A describing word.	blue fat sweet scary kind
While, After,		Question mark?	Goes at the end of a question .	How are you?
Until,		Exclamation mark !	Goes at the end of an exclamation to show loud volume or a strong feeling .	What a surprise!

Sentence Openers	Conjunctions	Words The Children Must Know the Meaning Of	Definition	Example.
Consolidate Yr1 List	Consolidate Yr1	Noun	A noun is a name of something.	cat dog girl boy tree table
á	List	Noun phrase	A word or group of words that work together and give extra detail to the noun.	A large dog swam across the river.
	and/ or/ but/ so.	Statement	A sentence which states a fact.	School ends at 3pm.
		Question	A sentence which needs an answer .	What time is it?
4		Exclamation	A sentence which expresses a strong feeling or a loud volume . Must start with 'how' or 'what'.	What a surprise!
		Command	A sentence which gives an order . Contains a bossy verb .	Sit down.
2.1		Compound	Compound words are two words joined together . Each part of the longer word is spelt as it would be if it were on its own.	football, playground, farmyard, bedroom, blackberry
But: However, Although,		Adjective	A word which describes the noun.	The brave lion prowled through the dark forest.
Aithough,		Verb	A doing word.	run jump skip hop write
Time: After a while,		Suffix	A group of letters added to the end of a word to create a new word with a different meaning.	high er, shortest , fly ing , finish e d
Immediately, Eventually,		Adverb	A word which adds more information about the verb.	Slowly quickly gently carefully angrily
A few days later,		Present tense	The verb shows it's happening now.	I am walking. Or I walk.
		Past tense	The verb shows it's happened in the past.	I walked.
Where: Across the road, Over the hill,		Apostrophe '	Punctuation used to show that letters have been left out (contractions) Or, to show singular possession (1 owner).	cannot can 't did not did n't The girl 's hat.
Inside the castle,		Comma ,	Used between a list of three or more words to replace the word 'and' for all but the last instance.	I like to eat strawberries, apples and grapes.
		Introduce Speech Marks " "	Shows which words are being said out loud.	" Hello." Said Tom.
		Introduce bossy verbs	Doing words which tell the reader what to do .	Pick that up. Cut it out carefully.

Sentence Openers	Conjunctions	Words The Children Must Know the Meaning Of	Definition	Example.
Consolidate Yr2 List	Consolidate Yr2	Word family	These show how words are related in form and meaning.	teach – teacher beauty- beautiful
Consolidate 112 List	List	Conjunction	A joining or linking word.	For/ and/ nor/ but/ or/ yet/ so
-áÒ-		Adverb	A word which gives more information about the verb.	slowly quickly gently carefully angrily
3	All of the coordinating	Preposition	An adverb that shows when or where something happened or is happening.	Yesterday, I walked next to the river.
	conjunctions: FANBOYS	Direct speech	These are the exact words in a sentence which a character says out loud.	" Hello ." Said Tom.
Because	For/ and/ nor/ but/ or/ yet/ so	Inverted commas or speech marks " "	Shows which words are being said out loud.	" Hello." Said Tom.
Time Prepositions (adverbs):		Prefix	These are groups of letters added to the beginning of a word, changing its meaning.	happy un happy appoint dis appoint
Later,		Consonant	All the letters which are not vowels.	BCDFGHJKLMNPQRSTVWX (Y) Z
When,		Vowel	Letters which are AEIOU & sometimes Y.
While, Whenever, Without Warning,		Clause	A group of words that contains a person/thing and a verb . It can stand alone.	I put on my coat.
Meanwhile,		Subordinate clause	A group of words that do not make sense by themselves. It starts with a subordinate conjunction.	As it was raining outside, I put on my coat.
Prepositions (Where adverbs): Next to,		Apostrophe of contraction/omission '	Punctuation used to show that letters have been left out.	can't, won't, I'll, shan't, could've, would've, should've,
By the side of, In front of,		Apostrophe of singular possession 's	Punctuation which shows ownership (1 owner).	The girl's hat. The tree's branches.
During,		Determiner	The word before the noun.	the a an
Through, Throughout,		Proper noun	A name of a person, place or day/month. It always starts with a capital letter.	Tom Aldershot Monday September
		Simile	This is when something is compared using the words 'like' or 'as.	I'm brave as a lion. The snowflakes were like frozen angel tears falling from heaven.
		Continuous present tense	An action continuing to happen now.	I am walking.
		Continuous past tense	An action that continued to happen in the past.	I was walking
		Heading	A title which tells you what the whole article/report is about.	The Wellington Thunder Dragon
		Sub heading	A title which tells you what the section is about.	What Does it Eat?

Sentence Openers	Language	Words The Children	Definition	Example.
		Must Know the Meaning Of
Consolidate Yr3 List	Comparative	Pronoun	A word which replaces the noun.	him, her, it, these, those, you.
	adjectives (bigger,	Possessive pronoun	A word which replaces the noun but show who it belongs to.	mine yours, his, hers, theirs, ours smaller) &	Abstract noun	A name of something you cannot see or touch.	happiness, sadness, anger, jealousy, justice.
4	superlative adjective	Collective noun	A name of a group.	a pride of lions, a gaggle of geese, a flock of sheep
	(cleanest, strongest)	Metaphor	When the author claims that something is something else to create an effect	A ribbon of moonlight. Frozen angel tears fell from the sky. The roller-coaster of life.
Subordinate conjunctions: Since,	Pronouns him, her,	Expanded noun phrase	A group of words in front of the noun, sometimes afterwards, to give more description. Often consists of 2 adjectives.	A calm, relaxing family trip. A yellow, wooden basket
Unless As-meaning because,	it, these, those, you.	Adverbial/ adverbial phrase	An adverbial is a word or more often a phrase (group of words) that has been used to add detail or further information to a verb.	Later that day, Opposite from the,
Although, While, After, Until.	Possessive	Fronted Adverbial	The adverb is at the front of the sentence	Later that day, I found out the terrible news.
Time preposition:	pronoun: Mine yours, his, hers, theirs, ours	Apostrophe of plural possession s'	Punctuation, after the s, which shows that something is owned by more than one owner.	The boys' teacher. The witches' coven.
Gradually,	thens, ours	Continuous tense	Past, present and future tense showing a continuing action.	I was walk ing I am walki ng. I will be walk ing .
Suddenly, Occasionally,	Abstract nouns: happiness, sadness, anger, jealousy, justice. Collective nouns: a pride of lions, a gaggle of geese. Introduce metaphors: The stars were glittering jewels	Subordinate clause	A group of words that do not make sense by themselves. It starts with a subordinate conjunction.	As it was raining outside,
All of a sudden, Later that day, Before the sun came up, All night long, Never before, Where preposition Under the, Opposite from the, Between the and the, Everywhere s/he looked,		Complex sentence	A sentence which has a main clause & a subordinate clause .	As it was raining outside, I put on my coat.
		Subordinate conjunction	The joining word which starts the subordinate clause.	As it was raining outside, I put on my coat.
		Rhetorical question	A question that doesn't need an answer out loud. Often used to create suspense or to persuade.	What was that? How would like that to happen to you?
		Comparative	An adjective which compares 2 things. Either uses the word more OR the ending er. Never both!	This is bigg er than that one. He is more intelligent than you are.
		Superlative	An adjective that compares 3 or more things. This is the most of whatever is being compared. Uses the word most or the ending est. Never both!	This is the biggest. He is the most intelligent out of us all.
How/Degree Almost unbelievably, Quite understandably,		Paragraph	A chunk of writing all about a similar topic, person, time or place.
Barely alive, Completely exhausted,			L SPace

Sentence Openers	Language	Words The Children Must Know the Meaning Of	Definition	Example.
Consolidate Yr4 List	Consolidate Yr4	Subordinate clause	A group of words that do not make sense by themselves. It starts	As it was raining outside, especially adverbs as	List		with a subordinate conjunction.
sentence starters	Secure metaphors.	Subordinate conjunction	The joining word which starts the subordinate clause.	As it was raining outside, I put on my coat.
(3)	Personification:	Relative clause	A subordinate clause which starts with a relative pronoun instead of a conjunction.	The MRB dragon nests in tall trees, where it feels safest.
	The bullet	Relative pronoun	A word which replaces the noun, used in a relative clause.	Who which where when that screamed,	Reporting clause	The part of a speech sentence which tells you who said it & how.	"Hello," murmured Ben, "How are you today?"
Consequently,	The storm raged, The shadows danced,	Embedded clause /Drop-in clause	A subordinate clause in the middle of the sentence.	The rugby match, which was said to be the best ever played, went into extra time.
Instead of, Compared to,	Idioms: It was	Modal verb	A special verb which shows the likelihood or obligation of something happening.	may/might, shall/should, will/would, must ought can / could
Moreover, Furthermore	raining cats & dogs. Zip it! Empty words, Someone, something	Adverb of possibility	An adverb showing the likelihood of something happening.	possibly, perhaps ,maybe, probably surely, definitely, certainly
In addition, Additionally Also,		Conditional sentence	A particular type of complex sentence. It has an action and a consequence and indicates the possibility of the consequence possibility with modal verbs. Generally uses IF.	If you don't do your homework, you will miss your break time.
However, Whereas,		Parenthesis	Additional information in a sentence. If it is removed, the sentence still makes sense. It's usually the embedded clause. It is separated by commas, brackets or dashes.	The defendant, Michael Evans , sat in silence.
Despite this,	Use of 5 senses .	Brackets ()	Punctuation, which shows extra information.	The defendant (Michael Evans) sat in silence.
Elaborated preposition:	Show not tell the emotion: Blushing,	Hyphen -	Punctuation which joins together words to create compound words.	Water-bottle merry-go-round green-eyed fair-haired
Beyond the dark cave, Throughout the night,	she smiled. His face grew white & his hands	Dash -	Punctuation which goes between words to show a separation of clause, or stammering / interruption in speech.	The defendant -Michael Evans- sat in silence. "I-I-I'm so s-s-sorry. I really didn't-" "I don't care!" Sally interrupted.
Using verbs (ing words) to start: Grinning he	began to tremble.	Apostrophe of irregular possession	Punctuation which shows ownership of a collective group.	children's men's women's people's
Running along Gasping,	Co-ordinating conjunctions:	Determiner	A word before the noun.	a an the these those
Sobbing, (ed words):	Either /or Neither/ nor Both /and	Cohesion	Everything fits together smoothly and verbs and subjects agree. This might be within a sentence, within a paragraph or across paragraphs.
Encouraged by the, Terrified by the,	Whether/ or	Ambiguity	A sentence contains ambiguity if it could be open to more than one meaning. It is unclear .	Jaws was a man eating shark. (Is Jaws the man or the shark?)

,	Not only /but also	Personification	A specific type of metaphor which gives an object or creature human features.	The storm raged . The shadows danced . The bullet screamed .
		Co-ordinating	These are joining words which always come in pairs .	Either /or conjunctions		Neither/ nor Both /and Whether/ or
				Not only /but also
		Idiom	A saying that is not literal (real).	It's raining cats and dogs.
		Perfect Tense	This shows a particular point in time (past, present, future).	I have walked. I had walked. I will have walked.

Sentence	Language	Words The Children	Definition	Example.
Openers		Must Know the Meaning Of
Consolidate Yr3, yr4 & yr5 List	Consolidate Yr3, yr4 & yr5 List	Active	This is a normal sentence. The subject does something to the object e.g.	The wind slammed the door
€	Extended metaphors Build in literary	Passive	This sounds strange as the subject and object is swapped over, so the thing at the front of the sentence doesn't do anything; something is done to it e.g Other words might have to be added in to.	The door was slammed by the wind.
(5)		Subject	The SUBJECT of a sentence is usually the person or thing acting or doing in the sentence. It's what or who the sentence is about .	Carefully, Angela picked up the vase.
7	feature to create effects e.g.	Object	The OBJECT of a sentence is the person or thing receiving the action.	Carefully, Angela picked up the vase.
Furthermore	alliteration, onomatopoeia,	Formal	A type of speech or writing used in formal, 'serious' texts and situations e.g letter of complaint.	It was reported, by the alleged victim of the crime.
Notwithstanding Henceforth	similes, metaphors personification (hyperbole) The difference between vocabulary typical of informal speech & formal speech & writing: said- reported, alleged, or claimed find out – discover;	Informal (colloquial)	A type of speech or writing used in informal, 'non-serious' texts and situations e.g an email to a friend.	What's up?
Therefore Moreover For that reason		Hyphen -	Punctuation which joins together words to created compound words. Often clarifies the meaning.	man eating shark or man-eating shark
On the other hand Not to mention		Dash -	Punctuation which goes between words to show a separation of clause, or stammering / interruption in speech.	The defendant -Michael Evans - sat in silence. "I- I-I'm so s-s -sorry. I really didn't-" "I don't care!" Sally interrupted.
ISPACE Start with :		Colon:	Punctuation to introduce a list or to separate a name in a play script.	I bought: Hermia:
Start with: An Ing word A simile A preposition		Semi colon ;	Punctuation to separate a list of phrases or instead of conjunctions to mark independent clauses or to show a quote .	I bought: a bunch of bananas; a kg of apples; 5 handkerchiefs & a watch. It's raining; I'm fed up In the text it says; "She froze."
An adverb (how) A conjunction An ed word	ask for – request;	Bullet points	Punctuation which separates items in a list. Can also be numbered.	First, fold the paper in half.Then, fold it in half again.
,	Double negatives : I ain't done nothing- I haven't done anything.	Ellipsis	Punctuation to show an omission of a word or words from a text; to create a pause for an effect; to show an unfinished thought or to show a trail off into silence.	Standing tall, we entered the chamber She screamed. Then there was silence Nanette kept pondering her decision and finally decided she had made a mistake. Harold said, "I'm not so sure about this" pronouns (myself, yourself, ourselves,	Subjunctive	Not used very often. The verbs are pretty the same as what they normally are but generally the words 'I were' and 'they be' are used and the final s is removed	If I were you, It is vital that she attend the meeting. I demand they be counted again!
	Reflexive
	themselves)	Perfect tense	This shows a particular point in time (past, present, future).	I have walked. I had walked. I will have walked.
		Synonym	Another similar word for a word.	pretty beautiful picturesque

Demonstrative			big large colossal huge pronouns- (thes	e, Antonym	A word which is the opposite of a word	big small those, this, that)		old young
Auxiliary verbs	Cohesion	Everything fits together smoothly and verbs and subjects agree. This might be within a sentence, within a paragraph or across paragraphs.
(am are was is)	Ambiguity	A sentence contains ambiguity if it could be open to more than one meaning.	Jaws was a man eating shark.
		It is unclear.	(Is Jaws the man or the shark?)
	Personification	A specific type of metaphor which gives an object or creature human	The storm raged . The shadows danced.
		features.	The bullet screamed.
	Report /Indirect Speech	This is when it is not the exact words & you are reporting what someone else said. No "". It's in 3rd person and past tense.	e.g Sophie said that she did not feel very well.
	Hyperbole	An exaggeration for an effect.	I'm so hungry, I could eat a horse.'
	Onomatopoeia	A word which sounds like the sound it creates.	Whoosh bang crackle snap boom
	Reflexive pronouns	These are used when the subject and object in a sentence are the same person.	myself, yourself, ourselves, themselves
	Demonstrative pronouns	These words identify a specific noun.	these, those, this, that
	Tricolon (power of 3)	A purposeful repetition of 3 things or a list of 3 things.	Location, location, location. It has the cleanest beaches, the purest waters and the mildest of climates.

