- ▣ There is a culture of lifelong learning throughout the school. This allows children and staff to constantly acquire new skills.
- ▣ The school has happy children, staff, parents and Governors. Children enjoy coming to school. The school is well regarded by all who know it.

To support this, the children of Glebe developed a set of expectations we call The Glebe Way. You will see this displayed around the school. Each statement is prefaced by our school motto, 'We can and we will'.
