Dear parents/carers,

Please find enclosed a booklet that we are promoting to parents as part of the NSPCC's Talk PANTS campaign that we will be discussing in Nursery this week. We have arranged for the children in KS1 and KS2 to have an online assembly in the spring term. The guide helps parents have simple conversations with their children that can help keep them safe from abuse. It's specially created for parents of early years and primary school children, with engaging and age-appropriate messages.

Talk PANTS centres on five key rules:

- Privates are private.
- Always remember your body belongs to you.
- No means no.
- Talk about secrets that upset you.
- Speak up, someone can help.

This week we will be discussing these five key rules and will also listen to the Pantosaurus Song. Please see below for this

Although some parents may feel this is a sensitive area to discuss with their child, we feel that sharing messages such as these with children at an early age can be very beneficial in helping to protect your child. Research from the NSPCC also suggests that the messages are most valuable when taught at a young age. We hope you find this booklet useful - for more information about the campaign go to nspcc.org.uk/pants

Yours sincerely,
