

CULTURE bite

HILLINGDON ARTS
& LITERATURE FESTIVAL

2018

October Half-Term Events for Families

The Great Debate! Jennifer Killick and Ross Montgomery

Monday 22 October, 4pm to 5pm at Winston Churchill Theatre: Authors Jennifer Killick and Ross Montgomery like to write about people arguing with each other. At this event, you'll be split into two camps of sworn enemies and need to find a way to debate your differences. Who's best? Cats or dogs? Chocolate or crisps? Batman or Superman? Recommended for seven to 10-year-olds. Tickets £2

Burger Boy

Friday 26 October, 2.30pm to 3.30pm at Compass Theatre: Award-winning children's author Alan Durant talks about one of his most fun and hilarious picture books, Burger Boy. Alan will read the story and go through the long, hard and sometimes wacky process of making a picture book that children actually like! Suitable for four to seven-year-olds. Tickets £2

Visit us at hillingdon.gov.uk/culturebite for other fun family events!

Book Now

01895 558184

www.hillingdontheatres.uk

HILLINGDON
LONDON

www.hillingdon.gov.uk/libraries